Directions: Use the placemat as a visual for children to know exactly where to place items when setting the table. This placemat can be a creative art project. Allow the children to cut food items out of a magazine and glue the cut items onto the plate. Discuss variety, color, and portion sizes with children.